LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—A lot of good mares are being booked by Bourbon Jay.

—C. S. Brent & Bro. bought 110 acres of hemp from Dr. W. C. Ussery, this week, at $4.85 for 112 pounds.

—James L. Donnel, of Carlisle, has sold a fancy gelding by Robertson Chief to parties at Columbus, O., for $500.

—The Continental has buyers at Augusta, Ripley and Maysville, and the company has bought 1,000,000 pounds at the three places.

—The stable of Woodford & Buckner, consisting of nine head, was shipped to Louisville yesterday, in charge of Mr. Hal Woodford.

—W. P. Fisher sold Monday to James and Joseph Connell, of Millersburg, his 135-acre farm on the Ruddells Mills pike, near Paris. Price $70 per acre.

—J. M. Stevens, Lancaster, N. H., booked a Nutwood mare to Jay Bird; Dr. F. J. Cleek, Walton, Ky., has also booked a good one to Jay Bird.

—Scott Hudson has received a green Jay Bird horse from Missouri parties. He has been a mile in 2:08, and will be entered down the Grand Circuit.

—In Fleming, W. S. Fant bought about 1,500 bushels of wheat several days ago at $1 per bushel. This is the first dollar wheat in Fleming county for several years past.

—In Montgomery, R. R. Warren, of Judy, sold his crop of tobacco at 12 cents straight. This includes 1 acre grown under canvas. The cost of canvassing one acre is $400, and the price paid for the tobacco is not enough to justify them growing it. The one acre raised under canvas produced 2,180 pounds.

—The following prices were received at the sale of W. T. Bedford, Tuesday, Horse, $98 to $100; mules, a pair, $280; single mule, $135; hogs, 4 cents a pound; cubs, $25 to $35 a head; yearling steers, $30; hay, $12 a ton; corn, $2.85 a barrel; chicken hens, 39 cents each; turkey hens, $2.50 and $2.75 each; gobbler, $4. Farm implements sold well.

—Exports of cattle, hogs and sheep have been large during January, being $4,055,000, being the only $4,000,000 mark reached in any month during the last four years. The exports for the fiscal year, thus far, have been $23,000,000 against $14,000,000 for 1903, and $19,000,000 for 1902.

—The farmers of this county are very much behind with their plowing. There were very few that got much done last fall, and since winter set in the ground has been frozen almost continuously, so that it has been impossible to plow. When the weather opens all available teams will have to be rushed if the various crops are to be planted at the proper time.

—At Winchester Court, R. B. Hutchcraft, of this city, bought ten 900-lb. steers at 4 cents; Caywood & Gilkey, of North Middletown, bought thirty 750-lb. steers at $3.65; Robt. Gilkey bought twenty-five 720-lb. steers at $3.70; R. B. Hutchcraft also bought a 950-lb. bull at 3 cents, and Mr. E. C. Thomasson, of Bourbon, bought a pair of 15½-hand mare mules for $300 and a pair of smaller mules for $200.

Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth reports sale of E. V. Layson and sisters at Millersburg, yesterday as follows: Horses, $125 to $182; plugs, $25 to $80; mules, $120 to $180; pair mules $230 to $270; short horns, $47.50 to $65; milch cows, $25 to $70; yearling cattle, $32.25; calves, $18.75 to $15.00; jack, $101; jennets, $15 to $78; sows, $11.90 each; sow and pigs, $22.50; pigs, $1.50; corn, $3.00 to $3.25 per Bu; farm implements sold well. Household furniture, good prices. Good crowd and good sale.

FOR LENT.—Everything nice for Lent, cod fish, fresh fish, eggs, butter, cheese, all kinds of vegetables.
Phone 433. J. HARRISON DAVIS.

ORDERED TO PANAMA.—The Third United States regiment of infantry, with headquarters at Ft. Thomas, Ky., has been ordered to proceed without delay to the Isthmus of Panama for active service there. The necessary orders were issued Tuesday by the War Department and telegraphed to Maj. Buck in temporary command at Ft. Thomas. The regiment is directed to leave at the earliest possible time on the army transports Sumner and McClelland, from New York.

Too Holy.

Certain good citizens of Millersburg are worked up over a species of theology that is being taught in the Female College. Rev. C. C. Fisher, president of the institution, is a professor of holiness, and has labored for a number of years to get up a correspondence between his profession and his practice. It has been his wont, every morning at chapel to have his scholars quote verses from the Bible, and recently, he has been carrying on a holiness crusade, requesting the children to bring verses that teach holiness. A few mornings since he asked those who did not believe in holiness to bring verses setting forth that view of the subject, and fourteen out of sixteen quoted from Paul to the effect that he who says he is without sin is a white-livered liar. When those patrons of the school who did not approve of this theology heard of the carrying-on, they forthwith upon Professor Fisher ad requested him to teach the children those things that they were sent unto him to be taught, and to leave the religious training to the parents. The Professor, knowing a good thing when he saw it, stated that holiness was to sweeten the heart, and that he proposed to continue his remarks until the last trace of sin had campered up the flume. Thereupon, the sons and daughters of the protesting parents were withdrawn from the chapel and Prof. Fisher will teach holiness to such as desire it. It is a good thing to leave holiness optional with the "seeker." Millersburg needs a first-class graded school. It would greatly enhance the value of town property and would mark a new era in the progress of this plucky little village. A town that invites people to become residents must show that it can afford better school facilities at less money than its neighbors. Prof. Fisher's rates are from $35 to $60 per annum, with music, painting, etc., extra.

WANTED.—I buy all kinds of shoes, clothing, carpets, furniture and stoves.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First. The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its patrons which is now being offered by that most popular railroad, the "Henderson Route," which road has been rightly termed the "Kentuckian's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has just been announced from the general office of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night trains between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have just been received from the shops and are a revelation in the car builder's art.

The cars are strictly up-to-date, first-class "palaces of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises which are promised the public for the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are solidly vestibuled and are furnished with sixty-four reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition to smoking and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in leather. They are also fitted up with triple racks, which feature will do away with the jerk, jar and strain incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach, and insures a smooth, comfortable ride. This should prove more than a popular feature in train service to the traveling public, and you can only suggest that in traveling you "get the Henderson Route" habit.

THE GUEST OF HONOR.

Cincinnati's Tender Secretary Taft a Series of Receptions.

In An Address Secretary Taft Made An Eloquent Plea For the Work of Civilized Government and Education in the Philippines.

Cincinnati, Feb. 23.—Secretary of War W. H. Taft has been the guest here of his brother, Hon. Charles P. Taft, since he attended the Hanna obsequies at Cleveland last Friday. During that time he has been the guest of honor at a series of receptions, including social functions, at the residence of Charles P. Taft, and a public reception at the Loyal Legion state headquarters Monday afternoon. The closing event before Secretary Taft returns to Washington Tuesday, was a complimentary dinner Monday night at the St. Nicholas hotel, at which 250 plates were turned and the floral and general appointments were very elaborate.

At the rooms of the Ohio commandery of the Loyal Legion in the afternoon there was a full attendance. Judge L. M. Hosea, who now occupies the place on the state superior bench formerly held by Secretary Taft, presided and introduced the secretary of war, who was given an ovation and said that he was glad to have a color of title to meet with such a distinguished military order by virtue of his present position in the war department. He paid high compliment to the soldiers serving in the Philippines, wishing prosperity to them as well as to the veterans of the civil war. Following this meeting as well as preceding the banquet Monday night Secretary Taft met many neighbors and life-long friends with whom he shook hands and many of whom he greeted without formality or title, calling them by their first name.

All the occasions were non-partisan, especially the brilliant banquet Monday night, at which Edward Colston, a one-armed confederate and leading democratic attorney, was toastmaster, and the leading address was by Judge Judson Harmon, attorney general in the Cleveland administration and at present recognized as the candidate of the Ohio democracy for the presidency. Among the other responses were those of Mayor Julius Fleischmann, Hon. W. B. Melish, of the Cincinnati waterworks commission, and Gen. Michael Ryan, who was United States sub-treasurer at Cincinnati under the Cleveland administration and quarter-master general of Ohio under the democratic administration of Gov. Hoadley.

While Secretary Taft referred to the complimentary references of all who preceded him, he gave special attention to the remarks of Judge Harmon. When Harmon resigned as superior judge here 16 years ago, Secretary Taft was appointed by Gov. Foraker to the vacancy and afterward by President Harrison as judge of the United States circuit court of appeals. He reviewed the pleasant associations of over a decade in those capacities with the speakers who had preceded him and the Cincinnati attorneys who were so largely represented on this occasion. Judge Harmon being an ultra anti-expansionist, he showed how life-long personal friends honestly differ on matters of public policy.

He maintained that this country is committed to the right course and was conscientiously looking after the welfare of the people in the Philippine islands. He reviewed what had been done and with a continuation of the same policy predicted a great future not only for the archipelago but also for this country in the trade relations that are yet in infancy. He expressed regret at leaving the Philippines at this interesting stage of their development, but felt with his experience there he could now be of more service to those islands in the war department. Little American capital has yet been invested there, the Manila railway being the chief investment. He insisted that the opportunity for American capital and for young men of education and capital was great in the Philippines.

Secretary Taft closed with an eloquent plea for the completion of the work of civilized government and education in the islands. He said the friar question now was about settled, as their places had been taken by Americans and natives, that thousands of Americans were there teaching school and hundreds of Filipinos were being educated in this country and that the day would come when the Philippines would be for the Filipinos, but that it would obstruct the progress of present operations to make any definite declarations for independence. Those wanting office or other selfish advantages would precipitate an injurious agitation. The present government in the Philippines must first succeed in completing its mission or independence would be a failure and any change that would abandon the Philippines would cause a disaster.

Celebrated Organist Dies.
New York, Feb. 23.—William F. Pecher, the organist of St. Patrick's cathedral, died Monday, at his home in Morristown, N. J., aged 66 years. He was considered one of the greatest authorities in American on church music.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—Corea has withdrawn from participation in the Louisiana purchase exposition, and has officially notified the management of the exposition to that effect. Notification was received several days ago.

VICTORY FOR AMERICANS.

Fight Between Spanish and American Sailors at St. Thomas.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Feb. 25.—A fight occurred here between sailors from a Spanish and an American warship which resulted in the wounding of several men and an ultimate victory for the Americans.

The fight originated when a seaman from the United States cruiser Columbia jostled a sailor from the Spanish cruiser Rio de la Plata as he passed him in the street. The Spaniard was with a companion from his ship, as was the American sailor, and all the men were on shore liberty. The Spanish sailor drew a stiletto and seriously wounded the American, who had brushed against him. Other men from the Columbia who were on shore gathered around their companions and attacked the two Spaniards, who defended themselves with their knives and succeeded in slightly wounding several other Americans. They finally escaped, ran to the wharf and jumped into the water.

WHITNEY'S WILL PROBATED.

Half of the Estate Is Given to His Son, Harry Payne Whitney.

New York, Feb. 25.—The will of Mr. William C. Whitney, probated Wednesday, gives half his entire property to his son, Harry Payne Whitney, three-tenths to his daughter, Dorothy, and one-tenth each to his son Payne and his daughter Pauline. There is a legacy of $250,000 each to his step-daughter, Adelaide Randolph, and his step-son, Bertie Randolph. Fifty thousand dollars per year is set aside for the education of his daughter, Dorothy, and in addition his daughter's companion, Miss Bend, is given $10,000 per year. Harry Payne Whitney is sole executor and trustee.

WAR CLERK DISCHARGED.

He Refused to Spell "Routing" With An "e."

Chicago, Feb. 25.—W. E. Baker, the clerk in the office of the quartermaster at Fort Sheridan, who refused to spell "routing" with an "e" although ordered to do so by his superior, Lieut. Col. Miller, Wednesday received his discharge from the secretary of war, to whom the question of spelling had been referred. Baker says that he will appeal to President Roosevelt. The word was used in an order relating to the transportation of troops, and Baker was ordered by Lieut. Col. Miller to spell it "routing." He said that he could not conscientiously spell it with an "e."

NATIONAL CHAIRMANSHIP.

Several Names Are Mentioned in Connection With the Position.

Washington, Feb. 25.—There has been considerable discussion around the senate and house about the probable successor to Senator Hanna as chairman of the republican national committee and the name of Senator Scott, of West Virginia, Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Charles Dick, who is slated to be Senator Hanna's successor in the senate from Ohio, are most frequently mentioned. A suggestion also is made that Senator Aldrich, no doubt, will be connected with the committee in some capacity, probably as chairman of the finance committee.

ARSENIC IN THE BREAD.

Five Members of a Family Died as a Result of Eating It.

Cayuga, I. T., Feb. 25.—Five members of the family of P. S. Crawford are dead as the result of eating bread in which arsenic poison had been mixed by mistake for baking powder. Crawford bought the arsenic to be used in medicine for hogs and placed it in an empty baking powder can. His wife thought it was baking powder and used it in making bread. Bert Crawford, a son, is the only surviving member of the family. He did not eat any of the bread.

GEN. MILES ON THE WAR.

Expresses the Opinion That It Will Be a Long and Cruel One.

Boston, Feb. 25.—Gen. Miles, who was here Wednesday, expressed the opinion that the war between Japan and Russia would be a long and cruel one. "I can not go into the matter at any length," he added, "but I do think a prolonged conflict will ensue, into which I hope the United States will not be drawn. It is yet too early to tell what the result may be. From present reports it is impossible to make accurate comment on what has already taken place."

Col. Hunt to Receive a Pension.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The house committee on pensions authorized a favorable report on the bill to pension C. B. Hunt, of Cincinnati, at $30 a month. Hunt was a private in the Mexican war, colonel in the Spanish war and served through the civil war.

The War For Independence.

Havana, Feb. 25.—The anniversary of the outbreak of the last war of independence was observed here much more generally than formerly. All the factories, especially every wholesale and retail establishment in Havana, were closed.

Federation of American Zionists.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 25.—The seventh annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists will be held in this city June 4-7. Prominent Jews from all over the United States are expected to attend the convention.

THE TREATY RATIFIED.

Went Through the Senate Without Amendment.

Both the War and State Departments Have Made Preparations For a Speedy Consummation of the Panama Canal Treaty.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The United States senate Tuesday ratified without amendment the treaty with Panama for a canal across the isthmus of that name by a vote of 66 to 14. The result was a foregone conclusion, the interest in the matter being only in the division of the vote on the democratic side which was not known definitely until the roll was called, all the republicans being for ratification.

Fourteen democrats voted for ratification and 14 against. Two democrats, Clark, of Montana, and Stone, of Missouri, were paired in favor of the treaty and three democrats, Overman, McLaurin and Martin were paired against it, so in the total vote 16 democrats were for the treaty and 17 against it.

The only other vote was on the amendment offered by Senator Bacon, providing for an arrangement to compensate Colombia for loss of the territory of Panama. This was rejected by a vote of 24 to 49. It was a party vote on the affirmative side and also on the negative side with the exception of Mr. Gibson and Mr. McEnery, democrats, who voted with the republicans. Four democrats were absent when this vote was taken and no pairs were announced for them. Some republicans also were absent on this vote.

Senators generally commend the management of the treaty by Senator Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, who has had charge of the measure during both of the plain and stormy sailing.

Everything is ready for the speedy consummation of the Panama canal treaty, and both the war and state departments have made preparations for the next step, the former by the dispatch of troops to the isthmus and the latter by the completion of arrangements for the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, which must take place in Washington. There is no reason why this ceremony should not occur within the next 48 hours. M. Bunau-Varilla, the minister from Panama, was at the state department Tuesday in relation to this matter and very soon after he has made the exchange of treaties will lay down his mission, according to notice he has already given. His successor as minister here will be Pablo Arosamena, the present head of the constitutional convention and father of the secretary of the Panama legation here. Mr. Arosamena is described as a lawyer of ability and a man of means.

The administration intends to press the canal project by all proper methods. As a cabinet officer expresses it, the next step after the appointment of the commission will be "to scratch dirt," and already such members of the commission as are assured of their places, like Adm. Walker and Maj. Gen. Davis, have been giving some attention to the provision of the clerical force and the engagement of engineering talent to conduct the actual work of canal digging.

THE CANAL COMMISSION.

Five of the Appointees by the President Have Accepted.

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Roosevelt has received definite acceptances from five of his appointees on the new isthmian canal commission, namely, R. Adm. John G. Walker, U. S. N., retired; Gen. George W. Davis, U. S. A., retired; Col. Frank Hecker, of Detroit, director of the transportation during the Spanish-American war; William Barclay Parsons, engineer of the New York subway, and William H. Burr, professor of engineering at Columbia university, New York, and one time a member of the Walker isthmian canal commission.

It is quite likely, although it has not been determined absolutely yet, that the other two members of the commission will be Benjamin M. Harrod, of New Orleans, an engineer of the Mississippi river commission, and C. Ewald Grunsky, of San Francisco, a distinguished hydraulic engineer. It is believed Mr. Grunsky will accept.

It was hoped by the president that Alfred Noble, engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad, would accept one of the appointments, but it was understood Wednesday night that he has declined definitely. His work for the Pennsylvania system is in such shape as practically to preclude the possibility of his undertaking the canal commission work.

The president expects to complete the personnel of the commission very soon, perhaps Thursday. He will send the appointments immediately to the senate for confirmation. He is extremely anxious that there should be no unnecessary delay in the practical work of digging the canal by the United States.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Acting Chairman Payne, of the republican national committee, formally appointed Elmer Dover secretary of the national committee. He will serve until the meeting of the committee preceding the republican convention.

Will Not Invite President Cleveland.
Jackson, Miss., Feb. 25.—By a vote of 42 to 33 the lower house of the Mississippi legislature Wednesday defeated a resolution to invite former President Grover Cleveland to address that body.

Got the Right Kind.

Gainesville, Texas, Feb. 22nd.—Mrs. L. E. Burton of 507 Glad street, this city, writes the following letter:—"I have been awfully troubled with my kidneys. I was in a bad fix and had been doctoring with the Doctors, but was getting no better. I tried a remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills and I found they did me lots of good. I had a slight return of my trouble and I went to the Drug Store and called for Dodd's Kidney Pills. They said there was no such pills. I told them there was. They said they had the best pills that were made and persuaded me to try a box of another kind, not Dodd's. As I needed some medicine, I bought a box, but they did me no good, so I went elsewhere and got the real Dodd's Kidney Pills, and very soon was completely cured. I took a box up to the Drug Store and showed them that there was such pills and asked them to order some, but as I haven't needed any more I haven't called to see whether or not they got them."

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lillydale, N. Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W. C. T. U., tells how she recovered from a serious illness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can to-day thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of all my troubles. "My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—MRS. ELIZABETH H. THOMPSON, Box 105, Lillydale, N. Y.

Thousands upon thousands of women throughout this country are not only expressing such sentiments as the above to their friends, but are continually writing letters of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, until she has hundreds of thousands of letters from women in all classes of society who have been restored to health by her advice and medicine after all other means had failed.

Here is another letter which proves conclusively that there is no other medicine to equal Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with poor health for over seven years, not sick enough to stay in bed, and not well enough to enjoy life and attend to my daily duties properly. I was growing thin, my complexion was sallow, and I was easily upset and irritable. "One of my neighbors advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I procured a bottle. A great change for the better took place within a week, and I decided to keep up the treatment. "Within two months I was like a changed woman, my health good, my step light, my eyes bright, my complexion vastly improved, and I felt once more like a young girl. I wonder now how I ever endured the misery. I would not spend another year like it for a fortune. "I appreciate my good health, and give all the praise to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. M. TILLA, 407 Habersham St., Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of such letters.

World's Fair March, 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati, known as the "Prize Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March 1904—and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S-W. R. R., World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with highly illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is his latest success, and will add further to his fame.

Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in national contests at Elks' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July, when, in a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America, won the first prize of $1,000. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music. Send 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

JAPANESE DEFEATED.

Russians Sunk Four Transports and Two Warships.The News of This Victory Caused Great Rejoicing in St. Petersburg—The Retvizan Particularly Distinguished Itself.

London, Feb. 25.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg gives another version of the reported Japanese defeat at Port Arthur, according to which the Japanese planned to sink some barges in the strait leading from the outer to the inner harbor of Port Arthur, thus blocking the exit. The Russian gun fire, how-

The reports of the loss inflicted, however, are conflicting.

Rumors of this victory were spread far and wide over the city during the early part of the evening, and the crowds which had gathered in the streets in spite of the severe cold to discuss the news, were greatly excited.

A telegram from Viceroy Alexieff to the czar says: "At a quarter before 3 in the morning of February 24, numerous Japanese torpedo boats attempted to attack the battleship Retvizan and sink large steamers loaded with inflammables. The Retvizan was the first to observe the torpedo boats, and opened a strong fire on them. She was supported by the land batteries. She destroyed two steamers near the entrance of the harbor; they were coming directly towards her. One of them went on the rocks near the light-house on Tiger peninsula, and the

The Building, Four Stories High, 200 Feet Long By 100 Feet Wide, With All Its Contents, Was Entirely Destroyed.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Three men were killed and 18 injured Wednesday night in an explosion that wrecked the starch mill of the Warner Sugar Refining Co., at Waukegan, Ill. It is possible that the number of dead will exceed three, but it will be at least a fortnight before the wreckage of the sion, was a brick building four stories ever, sunk the barges before they arrived at the intended spot.

Paris, Feb. 25.—The Russian embassy here has received a communication to the effect that a Japanese squadron, during the night of February 24, tried to block the entrance of Port Arthur harbor at the same time attacking Russian warships there with torpedo boats and trying to set them on fire. The Russian ships supported by the coast batteries repulsed this attack, forced the Japanese to retire and succeeded in sinking four of their vessels.

other sank under Golden hill. The Retvizan observed four steamers in a sinking condition and eight torpedo boats departing slowly to rejoin the waiting Japanese warships. A portion of the crews of the Japanese vessels was drowned. The grounded steamer is still burning. The enemy is observed in the offing of Port Arthur in two lines.

"The Japanese crews saved themselves in boats, and it is possible that some of them were picked up by the enemy's torpedo boats.

mill can be cleaned up in such a manner that it can be positively known that no more bodies are in the debris. The reports of the dead run all the way from three to twenty-five. The evidence, however, is in favor of the lower number.

The plant of the Warner Sugar Refining Co. is extensive and is valued at $2,500,000. The total number of men employed is 600 and the capacity of the starch mill is 18,000 bushels of starch daily.

TYPES OF THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

The news of this Russian victory was posted in the lobbies of the chamber of deputies and the senate during the sitting Wednesday and caused great enthusiasm.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 25.—Reports of a Russian victory at Port Arthur were current late Wednesday afternoon and early in the evening and about midnight they seemed to have been definitely confirmed.

The most circumstantial report was that the Japanese had attempted to bottle up Adm. Stark's fleet in Port Arthur by sinking two stone laden vessels at the entrance of the harbor, employing the tactics which were considered, but not executed, by the late Adm. Sampson, U. S. N., with the Merimac at Santiago during the Spanish-American war. According to this account two Japanese ships appeared off the harbor with a fleet behind them and ostensibly in pursuit. The Russians, however, suspected a ruse and their ships steamed out, sank the stone laden vessels, engaged and defeated the enemy and drove them off.

Found Guilty of Forgery.

Lesueur, Minn., Feb. 25.—W. A. Patten, cashier of the defunct Farmers and Merchants' bank of this city, Wednesday was found guilty of forgery. The Farmers and Merchants' bank was a private concern owned by Patten and his father.

Death Rather Than An Operation.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 25.—Rather than undergo an operation for appendicitis, ordered by her physician as the only hope of saving her life, Miss Mabel Ragan took two grains of strychnine and died a few hours later.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Col. Crowder, of the general staff, who has been selected to accompany the Japanese army in the field during the war, left Washington Wednesday for San Francisco, whence he will sail for Yokohama on March 5.

Will Fight For Russia and the Czar.

Rome, Feb. 25.—Don Jaime de Bourbon, son of Don Carlos, the pretender to the Spanish throne, declared in an interview Wednesday that he was enthusiastic to give his sword and life for Russia and the czar.

Double Tragedy in Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Frank Lewandowski cut his wife's throat and then attempted to kill himself in the same manner, Wednesday night. Jealousy of a son of Mrs. Lewandowski by a former marriage is said to have been the cause.

Fatal Street Duel.

Mt. Vernon, Tex., Feb. 25.—J. Cullen Stringer was seriously and perhaps fatally wounded by A. L. Prather in a street duel. After shooting Stringer, Prather killed himself. Both were prominent business men.

FIFTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

Regular Session.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Senate—The feature of Monday's session of the senate was a speech from Mr. Hoar in explanation of his former speech on the isthmian canal situation. He complained of the criticisms of his utterances at that time, saying that he had been misunderstood and misrepresented and contended that his intention on that occasion had been to secure full information concerning the Panama revolt and not to cast reflections on the president. On the contrary, he had the highest regard for that official and intended to vote for the treaty. Other speeches were made during the day by Mr. Carmack, whose remarks were devoted to a censure of Minister Bunau-Varilla, and by Mr. Cullom, who as chairman of the committee on foreign relations, has had charge of the treaty. He upheld the treaty throughout.

House—The naval appropriation bill Monday encountered opposition on the republican side of the house. Mr. Burton (O.), chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, announced in a vigorous speech that he could not support a bill which declares that the United States, which in his view should be the leader in all works for peace, is going to double, treble and quadruple its naval establishment and all under the assertion that it is done for peace. He questioned the need of so great a navy as the bill contemplates, asserting that the Monroe doctrine and the supremacy of this country on this side of the world is secure and that the control of the Philippines by this country had not been questioned. Mr. Burton said he did not want to be understood as opposing work on ships under construction or the maintenance of the navy.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Senate—The routine business of the senate Tuesday was broken into by an executive session on the Panama canal treaty. After the vote on the treaty, consideration was begun of the agricultural appropriation bill. More than two hours was consumed in the discussion of an amendment making an appropriation for experiments in stock feeding against which a point of order was made by Mr. Lodge. The point was finally withdrawn and the amendment adopted, but not until "Rule 16" had made its annual inroads into the valuable time of the senate. The agricultural bill remains the unfinished business.

House—Although the house devoted the entire day to a consideration of the naval appropriation bill under the five minute rule, small progress was made. Amendments were offered in profusion of the perfection of the measure from a democratic standpoint, but all save an appropriation for the Charleston navy yard were rejected. This matter, held in a forcible manner by Mr. Legare (S. C.), and amounting to a total of $655,500 to carry on the work on existing contracts, was agreed to. Just before adjourning the house authorized the printing of 10,300 copies of "A few directions for destroying mosquitoes."

Washington, Feb. 25.—Senate—The senate spent the greater part of Wednesday discussing an amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill striking out the house provision giving authority to the secretary of agriculture to inspect imported food products when misbranded or suspected of impurity. The discussion was closed by substituting the provision of the act of 1900 bearing on the same point. This solution of the problem was suggested by Mr. Proctor and was accepted by all. Consideration of the bill practically was concluded but final action on it was postponed until Thursday in order to allow an inspection of it as amended.

House—Two storm centers were encountered in consideration of the naval appropriation bill in the house. First, the great lakes training station went out of the bill on a point of order after a wordy battle. The building program proposed in the bill then met criticism and blocked further progress of the measure for the day. Mr. Burton (O.), the echoes of whose sensational speech for peace on Monday had hardly died out, moved to strike out the provision for the single battleship authorized. This motion is now pending.

THE SMOOT CASE.

Witnesses in Utah Are Being Subpoenaed.

Salt Lake, Utah, Feb. 25.—Subpoenas for Utah witnesses in the investigation to be conducted by the subcommittee of the privileges and elections committee of the United States senate into the status of Senator Reed Smoot, arrived Wednesday and a number of them were served by United States Marshal Heywood. It is understood that 19 subpoenas in all will be served here. Apostle John Henry Smith was among those summoned. It is stated that President Joseph F. Smith will also be served with a subpoena to appear before the committee in Washington.

The Third Regiment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—It will be fully a week before the Third United States infantry sails for Panama. The companies stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky., will hardly leave that place before next week. The general staff is now considering this question and orders for the time for movement of the troops have not been issued.

Hanna's Picture on Panama Bonds.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Senator Hanna's picture will probably be engraved on the Panama construction bonds, which will be issued shortly by the treasury department. The amount of the first issue of these bonds will be $135,000,000.

Selling Liquor to Indians.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Secretary Hitchcock Wednesday requested an appropriation of $10,000 by congress with which to run down and prosecute persons selling liquor to the Indians, contrary to law.

"Do It To-Day."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demolishing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschree's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

We are authorized to announce T. PORTER SMITH as a candidate for the office of Representative of Bourbon county in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR ASSESSOR.

We are authorized to announce Henry S. Caywood as a candidate for Assessor of Bourbon County, with J. U. Boardman as Deputy, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce E. P. Clarke as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Albert S. Thompson and Wm. F. Talbot as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Harvey Hibler as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Brutus J. Clay, Jr., and James Burke as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY.—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

The Cynthiana Developments.

[From Yesterday's Courier-Journal.]

"It is no cause for surprise that the lines are drawing closer and closer around the real power for evil in Breathitt county.

"A. C. Adams, one of the chief witnesses for Jett and White, confesses his guilt when arraigned for perjury, declared that he swore to the lies on the witness stand because of threats against his life if he refused, and inculpating in his confession some of the men to whom circumstances have long pointed as responsible for anarchy and assassination in Breathitt county.

"On the same day George Bowling, or Bolan, another of the Hargis-Callahan-French crowd's witnesses indicted for perjury in the Jett and White case, forfeited his bond, signed by Hargis, rather than stand trial on the charge.

"These developments reveal nothing that has not long been apparent to observers of affairs in Breathitt county. It has been clear that Jett and White were not alone in their murder of James Marcum; that extraordinary means were taken to manufacture testimony in their favor; that from the moment of Jett's pistol shots, to go no further back, every effort to certain law officers of Breathitt county was bent toward shielding, instead of bringing to justice, the murderers of Marcum.

"The Courier-Journal has repeatedly insisted that the facts in this case as well as in others, show that it is a mockery of civil government to allow James Hargis, County Judge, and Ed Callahan, Sheriff, to hold the offices they now hold; show, indeed, that these men, instead of trying to dictate new legislation to the General Assembly, should be impeached by that body.

"And the facts, moreover, as such as to convince any 'unprejudiced' mind that impeachment is only one of the steps that should be taken in dealing with them under the law."

THE Republican party, which has several times promised a revision of the tariff schedules, does not mean to undertake that job during the present session of Congress. Senator Spooner has so declared bluntly in a speech in the Senate. When Mr. Gorman asked why, the answer was that it was because a Presidential election is a disturber of business. We do not precisely see the connection, unless it be between the Republican campaign fund and inaction in tariff reforms. The people are convinced that the only way to secure proper tariff reform is to place the matter in the hands of the Democratic party, which will fix the roof when the sun shines, thus affording shelter from the storms of Republican monopoly, extravagance and misrule.

Talented Kentucky Woman.

The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal has the following to say of Miss Nannie Barbee, an aunt of Mrs. W. A. Johnson, of this city, and a lady who is well-known in this community:

"Many smart drawing-rooms and auditoriums of late have been held delightedly in thrall by the clever impersonations and dialect work of Miss Nannie Barbee, of Danville, Ky., who is making a sojourn in Washington before extending her progress to Philadelphia and New York. Miss Barbee's specialty is darky talk, her repertoire in that line being unique, in that it is compiled from her own personal experiences with good old black mamies and the dusky denizens of the 'cabins.' 'No less clever are her take-offs of the 'Knobs' people in her own home State. Her humor is subtle and delicious, her interpretations quaint. Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, of 'Cabbage Patch' fame, long before she became a celebrity herself, was among the first to discover the fine professional possibilities in the unique mimic talent of her fellow-stateswoman, and to encourage her toward the career that is proving so successful. Miss Barbee has recently given a reading before the pupils of Gunston Institute and Mrs. Summers' school and at many other fashionable institutions."

A Sensational Confession.

The trial of A. C. Adams, at Cynthiana, Tuesday, on the charge of swearing falsely in the Jett-White trial, resulted in a sensational confession by the defendant. Adams told the jury that he was induced to testify in behalf of Jett and White through bribery and threats on his life coming through George Bowling. His statements implicated James Hargis, Ed Callahan and B. F. French. He was given one year in the penitentiary. The case against George Bowling was called and his bond declared forfeited.

Judge J. J. Osborne, who was presiding at the Jett-White trial, arose and voluntarily addressed the jury in behalf of Adams.

County Attorney Webster address the jury saying, in part, that the State would be better off with Hargis and Callahan in the penitentiary than by sending Adams there. LATER.—The Grand Jury returned a true bill of indictment against Judge B. F. French, of Winchester, Ky., and Ed Callahan, Sheriff of Breathitt county, at Cynthiana yesterday, charging them with subordination of perjury in compelling and requesting A. C. Adams to perjure himself at the Jett trial last summer in behalf of Jett.

A General Shake-Up.

The long looked-for shake-up in the Police and Fire Departments at Lexington came late Wednesday afternoon when Mayor Combs called a meeting of the Police and Fire Commissioners and dropped thirteen policemen and eleven firemen. The Commissioners present were Mayor Combs, E. L. March, C. J. Bronston and W. M. Bateman, the latter having received his appointment at the hands of the Mayor, Wednesday morning. Chief of Detectives Harry Stough was the first man to be dropped, and that Commissioner J. Waller Marshall, the original Combs man, was appointed in his place. Chief of Police J. J. Reagan and Chief of the Fire Department George W. Muir, both of whom were anti-Combs men in the late campaign, were retained in their positions.

The Legislature.

The House, Tuesday, in Committee of the Whole, considered the bill regulating political parties. It struck out the section prohibiting party committeemen from holding office. As it stands the bill requires that nominations shall be made between September 1 of the year previous and September 1 of the year during which the election is to take place, and that committeemen shall resign upon becoming candidates for office. The bill will probably pass. Many new bills were introduced in the House, and a number were reported adversely and killed. The Senate passed the bills creating a police pension fund in Louisville and authorizing an increase of the salary of the Jefferson County Treasurer to $2,500 a year.

Marcum's Wife Sues for Damages.

The hundred-thousand-dollar suit for damages is to be the outgrowth of the killing of James B. Marcum, by Curtis Jett. Colonel T. A. Marcum, attorney at Muskogee, I. T., says that his sister-in-law, Mrs. James B. Marcum, of this State, will soon bring suit against Judge "Jim" Hargis and Sheriff Callahan, of Breathitt county, for the above amount, owing to the death of her husband. It is alleged that Jett was hired to kill Marcum. The damage suit of Mrs. Marcum will be brought in the Federal Court of Kentucky.

Child Wife Sues For Divorce.

Mattie Risk, aged 15 years, and Harvey Risk were married in Lexington last October. Although a rich man while his wife was poor, she alleges in a suit filed Tuesday that he had given her but 30 cents and has refused to support her and compelled her to return to her parents. He only lived with her three weeks. The defendant owns a large farm in Woodford county, and has a large sum of money on deposit in the Lexington banks.

A Congenial Climate.

A movement is on foot at Yellow Springs, O., near Xenia, to have the Berea College moved from Berea, Ky., to the Ohio town. John Bryan a wealthy farmer who has always been a great friend to Antioch College, for white and blacks, has offered large tracts of land and some money if the college moves. Subscriptions will be taken with a view of having the removal made. We trust a large sum will be raised.

The will is in his own handwriting. The estate, including $5,000 life insurance, is estimated at $15,000.

Mysterious Disappearance.

On Tuesday, February 16, Cornelius Ette, the accommodating and good looking young gentleman who has been clerking for A. J. Winters & Co., since November, 1902, mysteriously disappeared from this city and nothing has been heard from him since. At the time young Ette left Mr. Winters was out of the city, and Mr. Hooge, his partner, left the young man at the store while he went to his dinner. On his return, Mr. Hooge found the store locked up, and Ette has not been heard from up to this time. Last seen was about 12:30 on day of his departure, when he rushed into his room and told a friend in passing that he was going away. He left his overcoat and muffer hanging in the store and did not take his trunk or valise with him. Mr. Winters thought probably he had gone home, as he had been worrying for some time about the illness of his father, but his letters from home are coming addressed to him as usual. One was received Wednesday and was opened, and was found to be from his mother, whose residence is Keokuk, Ia.

Mr. Ette was a quiet, unassuming young gentleman, a talented workman, and had no bad habits, and his sudden disappearance cannot be accounted for by his friends.

LATER.—Since writing the above we understand that the young man was a dope fiend and confessed to several of his friends that while under the influence of morphine he had taken articles from his employers without their knowledge. And, we are now confident that he was under the influence of this drug when he left the city. It is a great surprise to his many friends here to know he was so unfortunate as to be afflicted with this habit. His parents are prominent people of Keokuk, Ia., and will no doubt make good all losses to A. J. Winters & Co., if they have sustained any.

Trial of a Chicken Thief.

Judge H. C. Smith held quite an interesting trial Wednesday, which was enjoyed very much by the regulars. Tom Bowman, somewhat noted as a chicken fiend, was before his honor, on the charge of stealing chickens from Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, in the county. When asked by the Court whether he was guilty or not guilty, Bowman replied: "Boss, I don't know, I did took 'dem 'er chickens. Was jes' passin' long and seed 'dem chickens up in dat tree lookin' so purty dat I jes' couldn't help takin' 'em."

The Court then asked him if he had ever stole any chickens before and he answered: "Yes, sar, once or twice, or several times; boss, I jus' can't help it, when I sees 'dem lookin' so nice."

He was sentenced to twelve months in jail, and Jailor Judy ordered to give him a chicken at least once a week, as the Court was afraid it might impair his health to take him off of chicken diet all at once.

Identified His Chickens.

Bob Rose, the accommodating driver for the Adams Express Company, in this city, had his poultry yard raided by thieves and was relieved of the care of a dozen nice hens, including some nice bantams. This was about ten days ago, and on Tuesday he was on his way to the depot with a load of express and happened to look into a coop of chickens on his wagon for shipment, and positively identified some of his lost chickens. He tried to find an officer, but failed to locate one in time to stop his birds. The groceryman of this city who shipped the chickens told him he could not say who he bought them from, as he purchased them in small lots from different parties. It seems to be pretty tough luck when a man has to put his own property on the train for shipment when he is positive that it has been stolen from him.

Mayor Perry Moves.

Mayor Benj. Perry got a move on himself last night and appointed the following Commissioners for the Library: James O'Brien, W. W. Mitchell, Dr. C. G. Daugherty, R. K. McCarney and Dr. Wm. Kenney. They were approved by the Council.

The Council rejected both bids of Electric Light and Gas Company. They were asked to make new bids.

The City Attorney was ordered to bring suit for $25,000 damages against the Paris Water Company, for failing to comply with contract in delay of building filter.

Suit was ordered brought against the Interurban for $5,000 for failing to comply with contract in regard to putting streets in condition. The suit to be held upon until next Friday to give them a chance to make satisfactory arrangements.

L. & N. People Talk.

Our item of last week in regard to a new depot for Paris has been noticed by the high officials of the road and a very satisfactory interview was had in regard to same. He informs us that the L. & N. people are very desirous of building a new depot at Paris, but it is impossible for them to build on the lot where the depot now stands. If they should build at this time they would be compelled to go to the junction at the old Fair Grounds, and that would make it hard on our citizens for additional bus fare. He said they had for years been trying to buy suitable property for this purpose, and have, in fact, bought all available property to improve the yards they could get. He also stated that the L. & N. would in the near future make extensive improvements on this division.

Was Turned Loose.

Deputy Sheriff Burke, on yesterday, arrested John Rainey on charge of chicken stealing. He was brought before the court and acknowledged of being in the chicken business for several nights, but did not know who the people were that he visited. Rainey also stated that he sold his chickens to the Cook Grocery Co. (Blue Grass Grocery). He was turned loose by the court because no case could be made against him. He is a morphine fiend and promised to leave for his home in Carlisle, at once, but we hear he is still in town—you had better keep an eye on your chicken coop.

Taken to Hospital.

On yesterday morning, Mrs. Ben Fowler, of Clintonville, was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, to be operated on for gangrene of the arm. She will be operated on by Dr. Wm. Kenney, of this city, and Dr. Barclay, of Lexington, her arm to be taken off at the shoulder joint.

Fowler is the daughter of Mr. George Morrow, of Clintonville. This is an especially sad case as Mrs. Fowler has a three weeks old babe by her side.

He is one of the promising and popular young railroad men in the South. But how, as a brother of 'Oscar' could he help being anything else?"

Croton-Giltner Nuptials.

The relatives and friends of the contracting parties witnessed a sweet and pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, at the elegant home of the bride's uncle, Mr. J. J. McClintock, on Duncan Avenue, when Mr. William Hilton Giltner and Miss Margaret Todd Croton were made one by the beautiful ceremony of the Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford.

Promptly at 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Keith McClintock began playing an inspiring wedding march, when Mr. J. D. McClintock and Miss Mattie Wyatt entered the rear door of the spacious double parlor, separating in the center of the room; then the beautiful bride and handsome bridegroom followed and were met by Dr. Rutherford, who, in his happiest manner, united them in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The bride was attired in a tailor made traveling suit of brown netty cloth, trimmed in white, a stylish jacket, with hat to match, and indeed made a handsome bride. She is the daughter of the late J. Z. Croton, pretty, bright and accomplished, and above all possesses a sunny disposition. The groom is the son of the late Henry Giltner, of Hutchison, is connected with the firm of J. S. Wilson & Bro., and is one of our popular and trusted young business men.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McClintock, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Carey Morgan, received most graciously the guests as they arrived.

In the dining room the table was filled with beautiful and valuable presents from the many friends of the happy couple. They left on the afternoon train for a short trip to Cincinnati, Dayton, Indianapolis and Louisville. On their return they will go to housekeeping.

Denies Charge of Extravagance.

A special from Crawfordsville, Ind., in Louisville Post, of Feb. 24, says: "The $10,000 damage suit of Mrs. June Jameson Gregg, of Paris, Ky., against Mrs. Sarah Gregg for alienating the affections of her husband, is still in progress. For two days the plaintiff has been under cross-examination. All the matter in the examination in chief has been gone over, with a few new points. The plaintiff denied buying thirteen pairs of shoes in 1900, related the alleged conduct of her husband and a young lady, who was often the guest of the defendant, and how she followed them from a dance hall and into an office, where, she claims, she saw him hug and kiss her. Two days afterward she left her husband and returned to her father's home in Paris, Ky."

"She said that her sister had sent her $5 with which to purchase Christmas presents. The day witness left her husband she bought a pair of shoes and $50 worth of dry goods, and had these charged to him. He told her to do this, saying that she should take away as many clothes as she brought when they were married. Her husband got $15 from his grandmother to get her back home when she was once visiting in Kentucky."

Last night's Louisville Times contained the following special from Crawfordsville: "Upon redirect examination yesterday afternoon Mrs. Gregg, in the damage suit against her former mother-in-law, testified that she had bought two pairs of shoes and a pair of rubber boots the first year after her marriage, and she had also bought $60 worth of dress goods. The picture that George had taken of a girl at Mt. Clemens, Mich., was offered the jury for inspection, and each took a long look at it. The picture showed a beautiful girl asleep under a tree, with black stockings much in evidence. The witness admitted that she felt hurt that her husband had taken the picture, and told him she thought it was no way for a married man to act."

Clay Bros. Ship to Nashville.

Clay Bros. shipped their string of runners to Nashville, Wednesday. Mr. Woodford Clay, the prominent young trainer, and member of the firm, who last year successfully raced and afterwards sold the sensational filly, Lady Amelia, for $17,000, left with his horses and will at once put them in training and personally supervise their work. It is his intention to start out the season at the Louisville meeting and thence proceed up the line. He will race awhile at the Chicago track before campaigning in the East.

The stable is headed by five three-year-old bread winners—Flying Ship, Outcome, Lonsdale, Paris and Memory, and the two-year-olds Angler, Fisherman, Woodman, Goodmanner and four others. We venture the assertion that there will not be a better bred stable of horses on the American turf this season and old Bourbon's reputation as the home of the thoroughbred will be fully sustained.

Large Tobacco Purchasers.

Mr. D. W. Peed, of this city, in two days of the past week bought over 200,000 pounds of tobacco in Bourbon county, paying from 6½ to 10½ cents.

On Wednesday, he bought the crops of Mr. Lawrence VanHook and a Mr. Lewis, about 10,000 pounds, for 6½ to 7½ cents. On yesterday he received about 40,000 pounds of the Earl Ferguson crop, paying an average of 9 cents.

Abner & Mussinon, of this city, have up to this time purchased 350,000 pounds of tobacco in this county and paid an average of 8 cents.

On yesterday, they bought the 8,000-pound crop of Mr. Chas. Stewart at 10 cents.

This firm have in their barn some of as fine tobacco as was ever grown in Kentucky, costing them 12½ cents.

Wealthy Farmer Suicides.

After eating a hearty breakfast and laughing and joking with his newly-married wife, J. Taylor Allington, aged fifty-five, one of the wealthiest and most prominent men in Bath county, went into a room in his residence at Bluebans, near Owingsville, and blew the top of his head off with a shotgun, death resulting instantly. Blood, brains and portions of his skull were scattered all over the room. It is believed Allington placed the muzzle of the gun against his head and pulled the trigger with his toe. No cause is known, as his home life was very happy. He was married two weeks ago to Mrs. Mary Robbins, a wealthy widow of Plum Lick, Bourbon county. He had just made his wife a wedding present of $2,700.

INVITATION.—You are invited to call at Baird & Taylor's, on Saturday, February, 27th, to inspect the National Biscuits Co's. line of fine cakes, crackers, wafers, etc. Their Mr. Stanton will be there to wait on you and show these most excellent goods.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Lillie Stamper, wife of Mr. Amos Stamper, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vanhook, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, at her home, near Little Rock, this county. The remains will be brought to the residence of her grandfather, Mr. Wm. Mitchell, in East Paris, where funeral services will be held to-day (Friday) at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. Burial in Paris cemetery.

—In this city, on Tuesday morning, Benjamin Hutchcraft Varden, the seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Varden, died suddenly.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, at o'clock at the residence, conducted by Elder Carey Morgan.

BIRTHS.

—In this city, on Tuesday night, to the wife of Frank Keeffe, nee Gummi, a bouncing boy.

INTERESTING TO AMERICANS.

Western Canada Will Soon Become the Supply Depot for Wheat for Great Britain.

During the past year about 50,000 Americans went from the United States to Canada. Most of these settled upon farm lands, and the writer is informed by agents of the Canadian Government that the greatest success has followed the efforts of nearly all. To their friends on this side of the boundary line the fullest assurance is given of the prosperity that is in store for them. There will always be a splendid market for all the grain, cattle and other produce that can be raised in Western Canada, and with the advantages offered of a free homestead of 160 acres of land, and other lands which may be bought cheaply, an excellent climate, splendid school system, educational advantages of the best, what more is required. The husbandman gets more return for his money than in any other country in the world.

On the occasion of Sir Wilfred Laurier's visit to the Corn Exchange, London, Eng., Colonel Montgomery, V. D., made several important statements. "The function (he said) which you have just been assisting in connection with a kindred association has doubtless shown you the importance of the provision trade of Liverpool in its relationship with the Dominion, and the enormous possibilities of the future development of that trade. Well, the grain trade of Liverpool has interests with Canada no less important than those of the provision trade. When it is borne in mind that 80 per cent. of the breadstuffs of this great country has to be brought from abroad, you will readily appreciate with what great satisfaction we view the large and steadily increasing supplies of grain which are annually available for export from Canada, and I challenge contradiction when I say that of the wheats we import from Russia, India, the Pacific, and the length and breadth of the United States, none gives more general satisfaction, none is more generally appreciated, than that raised in the Province of Manitoba. We cannot get enough of it, and it is no exaggeration to say that there are before us dozens of millers who hunger for it. This is not the time to enter into statistical questions, but we look forward with confidence to the time at which, with the present rate of progress, the Dominion of Canada will have a sufficient surplus of wheat to render this country independent of other sources of supply. I think I may, with justifiable pride, remind you that this is the chief grain market of the British Empire, and through its excellent geographical position, as well as through the enterprise of its millers it is now the second milling center in the world."

Send to any authorized Canadian Government Agent for copy of Atlas and information as to railway rate, etc.

CUTICURA SOAP

The World's Greatest Skin Soap—The Standard of Every Nation of the Earth.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the purest and sweetest of emollient skin cures, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching and chafes, and many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

It requires no special virtue to praise the right and pursue the wrong.—Ran's Horn.

Billion Dollar Grass.

When the John A. Salzer Seed Co., of La Crosse, Wis., introduced this remarkable grass three years ago, little did they dream it would be the most talked of grass in America, the biggest, quick, hay producer on earth, but this has come to pass.

Ag. Editors wrote about it, Agr. College Professors lectured about it, Agr. Institute Orators talked about it, while in the farm home by the quiet fire, in the corner grocery, in the village post-office, at the creamery, at the depot, in fact wherever farmers gathered, Salzer's Billion Dollar Grass, that wonderful grass, good for 5 to 14 tons per acre and lots of pasture besides, is always a theme worthy of the farmer's voice.

Then comes Bromus Inermis, than which there is no better grass or better permanent hay producer on earth. Grows wherever soil is found. Then the farmer talks about Salzer's Teosinte, which will produce 100 stocks from one kernel of seed, 11 ft. high, in 100 days, rich in nutrition and greedily eaten by cattle, hogs, etc., and is good for 80 tons of green food per acre.

Victoria Rape, which can be grown at 25c a ton, and Speltz at 20c a bu., both great food for cattle, also come in for their share in the discussion. [K. L.]

KOREA—LAND OF THE MORNING CALM

Peculiarities of the Little Eastern Kingdom That Is Now War Ridden by Japan and Russia.

KOREA, now war-ridden, is the frowzy corner of the eastern household where Nature, like a careless housemaid, has broomed the refuse sweepings of Asia. In that little, knobby peninsula of Cho-sen ("Land of the Morning Calm"), mixed and irreconcilable nationalities jostle one another, keeping alive the antagonisms of caste and kind. The son of the mikado is at daggers drawn with his celestial cousin, most of the Europeans are not on speaking terms, and the Korean himself cordially detests everybody, and is in turn distrusted by all parties. Korea, in regard to its limited area (about two and a half times the size of Scotland), is more prolific in intestine dissension than any spot on the globe. In no more suitable area could be struck the first blows of the world's approaching Armageddon.

Situated at the elbow of that bone of contention, Manchuria, with the direct road to Peking stretching from the western gate of its capital, Seoul, it is not surprising to find the Mongolian leaven prominent in Korea. Originally conquered by Korai, a warrior of Fuyu, it acknowledged the suzerainty of China for several centuries, and annually paid tribute. The latter custom, however, fell into desuetude, and was renewed only as late as ten years ago, when Japan first began to flirt with her cousin of the Yellow Sea. Nevertheless, the Korean is not faithful to any blood-strain, and is as thoroughly cosmopolitan in physiognomy and seething for a whole twelvemonth, settled in a most primitive fashion, and often half the town is drawn into the brawl. The creditor, catching his debtor abroad, may thump and pound him to his heart's content, and no one may interfere. For 14 days a veritable pandemonium reigns, and as a method of "clearing the air" it is certainly not without interest—for the spectator.

Seoul, the capital (generally and incorrectly spelt Seoul by the westerner), on the Hang Kang river, is an untidy, ill-built city, surrounded by 20-foot walls. The curfew system, common to feudal England, still prevails as in most Korean towns. A great bell is rung at sunset, and the gates are immediately closed, not to be reopened until the following sunrise. No lights may then be carried in the streets, and no one may go in or out of the city, with one rather startling exception. All funerals, by immemorial custom, take place only at night, and for this purpose there is a special exit called "The Gate of the Dead." Between the hours of sunset and dawn, no male is allowed to be abroad in the streets; these hours are sacred to the women, and constitute their only privilege. They usually employ the time in paying visits. Up to a few years ago any masculine philanthropist found out after dark was beheaded, but since the Europeans have introduced their own customs the entire system is in danger of revolution.

Seoul is one of the filthiest and worst-kept towns to be found in all the east. The idea of drainage has not character as he is in the instincts which, contrary to those of his neighbors, early led him to throw open wide his gates and welcome a heterogeneous commingling of races within his borders. You will find him facially resembling the Tibetan, the Mongol, the Hindoo, and even the African, with sometimes the oval face cast of the Egyptian. The higher classes of the kingdom are not infrequently as fair as the Caucasian, with features distinctly of the Aryan type, the eyes straight and devoid altogether of the conventional "slant." The hair varies from deep black to light brown, but red hair is totally unknown in Korea. Physically, the average Korean, though muscular, is undersized, and rarely attains to more than five foot six; the women seldom reach this.

Broadly speaking, it is hardly an exaggeration to say that the Koreans as yet entered the official mind, and that pestilence has not made there its abiding home is proof of a beneficent Providence. During the writer's sojourn some years ago it was not an unusual occurrence for the agile leopard (Korea's most common "wild-fowl") to scale one of the walls, and entering the nearest house, carry off a child in the darkness. To-day, however, we have changed all that; but Seyool's greatest need, from a western point of view, is still a decent hotel. The native dwelling house is an impossibility to all but a salamander. The flooring, in most cases, is composed of neatly-jointed flat stones, over which mats are laid. Underneath is a hollow space, in which firewood is laid in bundles and lighted. The paper doors are then slid into their grooves, excluding all air, and soon you find yourself in a Turkish bath. The average newcomer only tries it once.

The Koreans have a far keener sense of humor than the Chinese or the Hindoo. They are more kindly disposed to the poor, and more ready to help them than are the Japanese. But in childish superstition of every conceivable kind the Cho-Sense have few, if any, rivals. The religion is largely Shamanism; serpents, as in India, are reverently worshiped, and the country is overrun by astrologers, magicians and fortune tellers.

are the laziest people on earth. All day long they lie about the streets smoking their gigantic pipes (a native pipe is a six-foot length of bamboo with a metal bowl, and is carried tucked into the neckband and down the trouser leg). All work, of very nearly every kind, is done by the women, who occupy, perhaps, the most degraded position held by the sex of any nation. The unfortunate female population is collectively a beast of burden, and denied even the most elementary recognition as human beings. A Korean girl has no name; she is merely known as "Daughter of—"

During the first moon of each new year the Cho-sense throw off their inordinate laziness and allow their naturally quarrelsome proclivities full play. This is the period permitted by law when anyone and everyone may fight in the public streets, or anywhere they choose, with impunity. And full advantage of the license is taken! Now are family disputes, which have been

SILVER AS AN ANTISEPTIC.

Effects of the Metal to Prevent Suppuration of Wounds Favored by Physicians.

Even the most skillful of surgeons sometimes finds it difficult to dress a wound in such a manner as to prevent suppuration, a condition that is quite likely to endanger the patient's life. The processes most in use are exceedingly complicated, as most dressings must be removed at least every day. There are none of these objections, however, in the method of Dr. Rebol, says a medical journal, for whether the dressing is to be applied to a recent cut or to an ulcerated tumor a sheet of silver or silver leaf is all that is necessary. The silver is simply placed on the wound or ulcer, and as it sticks so closely to the surface a little cotton soaked in collodion is sufficient to keep it in place.

The effects of this sheet of silver are very remarkable. When the wound is a recent one and not contaminated with microbes the wound quickly heals under the influence of the silver without inflammation or suppuration and without presenting the slightest bad symptom. Conditions are just as favorable in cases of ulcer—chronic ulcer of the leg, for example—in which case the suppuration decreases little by little, while the ulcerated surface gradually becomes covered with healthy skin, which soon produces a good cicatrice in place of the ulcer. This perfect cicatrization has even been obtained in many cases of ulcerated cancer of the skin.

What is this property that silver possesses? It is due to the great antiseptic power of this metal, which is proved by the following experiment: Several years ago a physician of Lyons, Dr. Rollin, decided to cultivate microbes in a bouillon which he had placed in a silver vessel. To his great surprise he found that in place of multiplying in the nutritive liquid the microbes perished, and at the end of a few hours completely disappeared, which fact was all the more remarkable as the same microbes multiplied ad infinitum when placed in another vessel. Pursuing his investigations, Dr. Rollin, analyzed the bouillon which was contained in the silver vessel and found therein a very small trace of silver, which infinitely small quantity had rendered antiseptic a liter of bouillon.

THE INDIANS OF SAN BLAS.

They Are in Reality the Masters of the Eastern Districts of Panama.

Capt. Pepper, of Jones' lane, who has traded for years with the inhabitants and knows the whole coast of the gulf of Darien, where, at the mouth of the Atrato river, the Colombian government was reported to have landed troops for an over-mountain march on Panama, says in the New York World:

"The San Blas coast is a strip of shore keys and sound, 150 miles long, inhabited by the San Blas Indians, who, although nominally under the Colombian government, hardly recognize it. They have about 30 settlements, where they live strictly in accordance with their ancient laws and usages.

"When Colombia tried to erect custom houses the San Blas Indians said they would burn them, and foreign vessels trading with the coast have therefore to get clearance at Cartagena.

"Cocoanuts, ivory nuts and some turtle shell are chief articles of trade. Cocoanuts take the place of money, 1,000 being worth $25 and four equal to ten cents.

"While the Indians have small vegetable plantations on the mainland along fresh water streams they live, principally on account of wild beasts and mosquitoes, on the keys. Another reason for the Indians sleeping on the islands is the fear that their women may be stolen.

"Every settlement has its own chief, the most important being Sassadi. This chief comes in contact with the mountain Indians. These mountain Indians are enemies of Colombia, and I think a Colombian army trying to reach Panama by way of the mountains from the Atrato would have a difficult task.

"The women, who perform all the house and farm work and carry water, wear very long, fanciful costumes, mostly of red, yellow and blue. Around the loins is a rather long cloak answering to the American skirt, while a long, wide-sleeved blouse, worked with ornamental patterns makes a picturesque costume.

"It is a crime for a woman to flirt, and if one of their women is found to have deceived her husband the penalty is death."

Peculiar Highland Remedies.

A popular Highland remedy for both consumption and general debility was what is known as such nan cabar ("the juice of deer's horns"). These were gathered in the hills when the animals cast them in the springtime. They were boiled for some hours and the juice thus obtained bottled, after being strained. Candy sugar and whisky are usually added to it nowadays. Crabs' shells pulverized and eaten on bread and butter, were used for consumption, asthma and whooping cough in the Hebrides.—Caledonian Medical Journal.

TWO TREES.

Through lonely years an algaroba stood,
Her only company the wandering wind;
And off she tossed her green boughs toward the wood
And dreamed that Heaven was fellowship of kind.
One happy day the solitary one
Awoke to find a little palm tree near,
Whose waving leaves were shining in the sun,
Whose stately grace that moment made it
dear.

Through months and years the twain
grew, unafraid,
And for the palm tree's need the other gave
The shelter of her boughs, their filmy shade.
The storms they faced as comrades true
and brave,
Together drank the sunlight and the dew,
And ever when the twilight winds did blow
They whispered each to other all they knew
Of life and love, and waxed in beauty so.
The gardener came; their mingled leaves he saw—
Too well-beloved the young tree! and straight,
Lest all unkind of its inner law
The palm be dwarfed, he moved it from its mate.
Again the algaroba is alone,
The pangs of parting still are unforget,
But love sings song of joy in place of moan—
For she can see, though far, his glorious lot!

O lonely one, dost sorely miss thy friend?
Royal his state—shall she when life doth end,
Too close thy love did cling about him, so God took him, for his soul had need to grow.

HOW THE SERGEANT
FELL IN LOVE

By F. H. MELOON

(Copyright, 1903, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

POLICE SERGEANT JAMES BRYAN, with the humorous twinkle of the ancient O'Brien in his eye, sat facing me in a restaurant stall.

"I was younger once than I am now," remarked the sergeant, suddenly.
This was a truth I could not deny, though anyone who saw the sergeant at 65 would have placed his age a score of years behind what it really was. With a half laugh the sergeant, who never hesitated at telling a story on himself, proceeded.

"The days when I first got accustomed to life on the force were full of fun and frolic. Some hardship, of course, but for the most part I was about as light-hearted a chap as could be picked out in any county in New Hampshire. I was the same sort of fool that many a young man had been before me and has been since, and when I looked up to the second story window of a house on Essex street and saw Blanche Stirling smiling down at me my heart went faster than ever and I walked giddily for a quarter of a mile thereafter. I should have stopped stock still right on the spot, but as soon as I caught a glimpse of her black-brown hair combed up in a great wave over her forehead and saw her pretty lips part in one of the most tempting smiles of pearl I've ever seen the vision vanished behind a curtain and I saw it no more for three or four days.

In the meantime I wore my back collar stud in front, mixed up my cuff buttons, went without my suppers and all that sort of thing trying to get off to catch another glimpse of Blanche. I had learned her name within an hour of the time I first saw her looking down at me and learned, too, that she lived alone with her mother in the upper part of the tenement. As pretty as a picture didn't express anything in speaking of her unless you added that it was a picture by one of the old masters, sir."

"But, sir, if you could see her to-day as she was then, you would understand. As it is I can hardly tell you any more of how she looked to me, and not to me alone, sir, but to others as well, who gazed upon her in the old days.

"In the next week I passed her on the street two or three times and she did not so much as deign to glance at me. I began to think I must have been mistaken in believing I was the object of her smile the week before. But one night as she was walking home unescorted, Blanche Stirling was accosted by a half-drunken fellow. In an instant, as it were, I had him by the collar and he was thrown into the street with no gentle hand. I can be tolerable rough at times, sir." And Sergeant Bryan smiled as he bent his right arm in the manner peculiar to youngsters who show off their "muscle."

"Then came another of those entrancing smiles, and I tell you, sir, I actually felt faint all over. Just the way Elijah must have felt when they lifted him up to heaven in a golden chariot. Blanche thanked me very prettily and invited me to call at the house the following day, if I were off duty, in order to allow her mother the opportunity of thanking me more fully. You may believe that I accepted the invitation with an eagerness that she saw was too real to be assumed.

"The man who wouldn't have yielded to that invitation under the same circumstances would have had to have a harder heart than the folks in Seabury, of whom it is current rumor that they stone the funerals that pass their doors so that in that place no undertaker can be hired to use an ordinary sort of hearse, sir."

"The next day the Widow Stirling received me pleasantly and I might say almost overwhelmed me with her effusive thanks for what I had done for her daughter, which was a mere nothing, sir, and all in the way of my duty as an officer, not to add as a man, sir.

"The days passed on and I met Blanche frequently going with her to theaters and dances and such like and all the while getting deeper and deeper in love. I loved her, mind you, for I never loved before—and I left just like a rat in a feather mattress that can't tell where he's at till he's come out of it, sir.

"One night when I passed the house and saw Ned Remich in the sitting room beside Blanche I grew nearly frantic with jealousy. I had not counted on a rival and the appearance of Ned on the street after that always acted on me like a red rag on a goose, sir. Don't look as if I'd made a slip; I use the word advisedly, sir.

"Ned, I can say now, was a good looking fellow with black curly hair cut so that it seemed as if he had a cap on when his hat was off, if you came up behind him. The next time you're back of an orchestra see if you can't pick out some fellow that looks like that, sir. At that time I would have told you Ned Remich looked like a peach orchard out of cultivation, but naturally I see things clearer now. Ned was really a good looking fellow and a good hearted one, too, as I've found out many times since then.

"Between Ned and me the rivalry for Blanche Stirling's heart waged fast and furious. We hardly spoke to each other although we had been passing acquaintances before. Blanche never invited us both to the house the same evening and so a direct clash was avoided.

"Every time I called the Widow Stirling sat there as calm and collected as you please with a pleasant nod for me always and an occasional word or two in the conversation. She never left us alone in the room and gave me no chance to speak to Blanche on the subject of which my head and heart were full. I paid both the ladies all sorts of pretty compliments I could think of, but that was about the limit. Several times when Blanche and I were out together at social affairs without the chaperonage of her mother I had started to ask her for her hand, but she had always stopped me one way or another before I could make a direct avowal of my love. Usually she pretended petulance and, if that appeared about to fail, tears. Against the latter I was powerless. She explained the tears by nervousness and hysteria to which she was liable.

"Ned Remich and I used to glare at each other as you've seen bull dogs do across the street when some one's holding them from each other. It was Blanche Stirling that held us back while at the same time she unknowingly incited us to commit a serious breach of the peace.

"When my passion had about reached its height I found another chance to distinguish myself in the eyes of the Stirling household. Passing the house late at night, I was astounded to see a man trying to fit a key at the front door. I hadn't heard from Blanche for two days, but I knew she was at home. The man acted as bold as might be and I whispered to myself: 'There's a pretty case of sneak thieving that don't go on my beat!'

"With that I up and grabbed him. He started to yell, but I put my hand over his mouth. I wasn't going to let him arouse the Stirlings at that hour of the night. The man fought and struggled, but when he tried to enter into explanations I was feeling that savage I hit him with my club until at least he had to come along quietly. At the station I booked him as drunk and what with the clubbing I'd given him he acted it, too.

"I didn't want to be hard on the poor devil after the way I'd beaten him and I judged that he'd think himself lucky to be let off with a charge of drunkenness after what he'd been attempting to do.

"The next morning when I went down to the station there was a good sized drama waiting for me. The central figures were the Widow Stirling and her pretty daughter Blanche. As I entered their backs were toward me and my prisoner was just being led out of the cell.

"Blanche's arms were around his neck in an instant and she was saying something I didn't understand. I was thunderstruck. At last they broke away and she, looking toward me, gave a sudden start.

"Your father, Miss?" I asked.

"No, my husband!" was the reply.

"You could have knocked me down with a chunk of fog I was that weak. The floor seemed to open under me and I rubbed my eyes to see if I couldn't wake up. It was no go. I coughed violently and went into a side room to get a drink of water to clear my throat.

"When I came back the Stirlings were gone and I was called on for explanations, which I gave. The captain of the night watch laughed heartily and long until tears came to his eyes. I looked on but saw nothing to laugh about.

"How I got out of it I don't know, but I was the recipient of many a rude jest for a week or so until I threatened to kill on sight anyone that said Blanche Stirling in my presence.

"It seems that her husband had arrived the day before and was coming in late that night when I mistook him for a burglar. Ned Remich was almost as bad off as I was, but the matter soon grew quieter as the Stirlings left town before many days on account of the notoriety they'd gained and were not heard of again by me at least."

"Pulling out his watch, the sergeant exclaimed that we had but five minutes in which to reach the theater and we rose hastily, paid our bills and went to watch Rosalind in her Dr. Mary Walker suit work out the tangle of a clever skein.

Risked Life to Save Dog.
A story comes from the Wichita mountains, in which it is stated that John Jackson, a homesteader, leaped into a den of panthers where one of his faithful dogs was being torn to pieces, to save his pet dog from death. The dog was killed, though Jackson, badly wounded, succeeded in stabbing to the heart two of the old panthers and then made his escape from the den.

NEED NOT CARRY LUNATICS.

Supreme Court of Georgia Makes Interesting Decision in Favor of a Railway Company.

A decision involving the right of a railway company to haul certain passengers was made by the supreme court of Georgia recently when it was held that the Macon & Birmingham railroad was right in refusing to carry a crazy passenger from Macon to Lagrange, even though he was in charge of officers of the law.

A man had been adjudged a lunatic by the ordinary of Troup county, and officers were endeavoring to carry him to the insane asylum at Milledgeville. When the officers attempted to put him aboard the train he raised a disturbance. General Manager Lane, of the Macon & Birmingham, was present and ordered the conductor not to take the man on board. Suit was instituted against the railroad in the superior court, and the jury found in favor of the railroad. The case was appealed to the supreme court, and the railroad won again.

The court decided as follows: (1) The right of other travelers to a safe and comfortable passage warrants a carrier in refusing to receive one who has been adjudged a lunatic, and who, though in charge of attendants, is loudly cursing and using obscene language at the time of boarding the car. (2) Common carriers cannot absolutely refuse to transport persons who are insane, but may in all cases insist that they be properly attended, safely guarded and securely restrained. (3) Where it becomes necessary to transport a lunatic who by reason of his violence may endanger the safety or interfere with the comfort of other travelers, the carrier is entitled to reasonable notice in order that it may make proper arrangements for his transportation.

WILD MAN FOUND IN SPAIN.

Cave Dweller Discovered Who Lived on Raw Meat and Nuts for Two Years.

The discovery of a cave dweller in the Basque provinces, near Puenferrabia, on the Franco-Spanish frontier, has aroused considerable curiosity at Madrid.

As a customs guard with his dogs was searching in a wood an extraordinary being in the image of a man was seen to rush before him with wonderful rapidity and disappear into a hole in a mountain. The guard followed on, and found the wild man had blocked up the entrance to his cave with pieces of timber and stones, which, however, were easily removed, and the man was captured.

He was absolutely prehistoric in appearance. His only garment was a skin tied round his hips. His long and matted beard fell over his chest like a cloak, while his hair trailed down his back in a thick mass.

In his cave were found numerous bones of sheep, deer and other animals which he had eaten, a sling, a club and a stone ax. A bed of moss was his only furniture.

The guard brought him to Puenferrabia, where his appearance created a sensation. Before the magistrate he explained that his name was Prudenicio, he was 28 years old, and had been, when an infant, an inmate of a foundling hospital in San Sebastian.

He had formerly acted as farm hand, but two years ago, being unable to find work and being in great distress, he took to the forest. There he lived on acorns, hazel nuts and birds' eggs. Little by little he learned to use a sling and the ax, and was able to kill deer and sheep which had strayed. As he had no fire he ate the flesh of these animals raw.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH
RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO FIGHT
CATARRH, COUGHS, COLDS, GRIPPeruna for coughs and colds in children.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH

Use Pe-ru-na for La Grippe and Winter Catarrh.

IN EVERY country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known. Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of the charges committed to their care, but they also minister to their bodily needs.

Whenever coughs or colds, la grippe or pneumonia make their appearance among the children these Sisters are not disconcerted, but know exactly the remedies to apply.

With so many children to take care of and to protect from climate and disease

Sisters of St. Joseph, of the Deaf Mute Institute, 1849 Cass Ave., St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"We appreciate Peruna very much. It certainly does good work with catarrh and also with colds and la grippe. We have faith in Peruna and have inspired many others with same. We do not like to be without it. It has certainly kept us from being very sick. It did a world of good last winter for our little ones. Thanking you for your kindness to us and our afflicted ones, we remain, yours gratefully, these wise and prudent Sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH."

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters from all over the United States. A recommend recently received from a Catholic institution in Detroit, Mich., reads as follows:

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir—"The young girl who used the Peruna was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after further use of the medicine we hope to be able to say she is entirely cured."

This young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Peruna for catarrh of the throat, with good results as the above letter testifies.

From a Catholic institution in Central Ohio comes the following recommendation from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character.

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

Another recommendation from a Catholic institution of one of the Central States written by the Sister Superior reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases of the head and stomach.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."

SISTERS OF CHARITY

All Over the United States Use Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

A recommend recently received from a Catholic institution in the Southwest reads as follows:

A Prominent Mother Superior Says:

"I can testify from experience to the efficiency of Peruna as one of the very best medicines, and it gives me pleasure to add my praise to that of thousands who have used it. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, all remedies proving valueless for relief. Last spring I went to Colorado, hoping to be benefited by a change of climate and while there a friend advised me to try Peruna. After using two bottles I found myself very much improved. The remains of my old disease being now so slight, I consider myself cured, yet for a while I intend to continue the use of Peruna. I am now treating another patient with your medicine. She has been sick with malaria and troubled with leucorrhea. I have no doubt that a cure will be speedily effected."

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States.

The names and addresses to these letters have been withheld from respect to the Sisters but will be furnished on request.

One-half of the diseases which afflict mankind are due to some catarrhal derangement of the mucous membrane lining some organ or passage of the body.

A remedy that would act immediately upon the congested mucous membrane restoring it to its normal state, would consequently cure all these diseases. Catarrh is catarrh wherever located, whether it be in the head, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys or pelvic organs. A remedy that will cure it in one location will cure it in all locations. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

CLARKE & CO. RELY UPON HYOMEI.Cures Colds, Coughs, Catarrh and Grip. Just Breathe It.

Hyomei is nature's own method for curing catarrh, colds, coughs and diseases of the respiratory organs. It is the only natural treatment for the cure of these troubles.

Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the air passes into the throat and lungs, is identical with that on the mountains, where it is laden with healing and health-giving balsams. It searches out and kills disease germs in the most remote and minute air cells of the head, throat and lungs, it soothes and heals all irritation of the mucous membrane.

Hyomei is prescribed by physicians generally. Many of them use it themselves to break up a cold and prevent pneumonia.

The complete Hyomei outfit consists of a neat inhaler, that is so small and convenient that it can be carried in the pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. This costs but $1, and it will cure any ordinary case of catarrh. In chronic and deep seated conditions, longer use is necessary and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c., making it a most economical treatment for this disease.

Clarke & Co. have so much confidence in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh and other diseases of the throat and lungs that they sell it under their personal guarantee to refund the money to any purchaser in case it fails to give satisfaction. They take all the risk themselves, and Hyomei costs you absolutely nothing unless it does you good.

World's Fair March, 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati, known as the "Pride Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March, 1904, and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S-W. R. R. World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with highly illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is his latest success, and will add further to his fame.

Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in national contests at Elks' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July, when, in a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America, won the first prize of $1,000. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music.

Send 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

The Jew In History.

[From Cincinnati Post.]

Isador Raynor is the new Senator from Maryland.

Isador Raynor is a Jew.

He is also a big-brained, competent, aggressive American, and his election to the Senate brings up thoughts about the place in the affairs of the world that Jews are occupying.

Renan says: "A Jew will never be a citizen; he will simply live in the cities of others."

If that were true, it would make the Jew a transient, an individual without civic or national pride or interest; a man who could, by no possibility, be a Patriote.

It would stamp him as a man who accepts opportunity and refuses responsibility.

Renan was wrong. It was little enough to assert that he was entirely wrong.

If you are interested in knowing what latter day civilization owes to the Jews, read Madison C. Peters' "The Jew as a Patriot," and learn that brains, courage, integrity and not matters of birth or inheritance.

In the Civil War, on both sides, there were Jews unnumbered. North Carolina sent six Cohen brothers, South Carolina five Moses brothers. On a tombstone at Cypress Hill you may read the undying

obituary of Commodore Uriah Phillips

Levy, who at the time of his death, in 1862, was the highest ranking flag officer in the navy. It reads: "He was the father of the law for the abolition of the barbarous practice of corporal punishment in the United States Navy."

In the Spanish War the first man to volunteer was a Jew, and the first man to offer his life on his country's altar was a Jew, and more than four thousand Jews served in the American armies during the war.

Isaac Jacobs was the first Hebrew member of Congress, in 1791, and there were many to follow. Judah P. Benjamin declined a position on the Supreme Court bench, and was elected a Senator from Louisiana. There have been Jewish Judges since 1778; Jewish diplomats, beginning with Solomon B. Nones, the competent Consul General to Portugal.

In every field of endeavor the Jew has matched his brains with the world and maintained his standing.

Renan was wrong.

It is exceedingly gratifying to the old

Confederate soldiers in Kentucky to know with what unanimity and doubtless pleasure the Legislature has passed bills in their interest. The handsome sum of $57,000 was appropriated for the erection of cottages at Pewee Valley, the site of the Confederate Home, made possible by the generosity of the people, as well as by a former appropriation by the Legislature.

The proposed cottages are to be for the use of such of the old soldiers as have wives, both of them being dependant.

In addition to this nice appropriation, a bill was passed increasing the per capita of the inmates from $125 to $175. When the bill came up in the Senate, the venerable Senator Curtis F. Burnam, of Richmond, father of the present Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, said he had always been an uncompromising Union man, but nothing would give him more pleasure than to do anything within his power to help care for the aged soldiers who fought for what they conceived to be the right. Senator Burnam is an ardent Republican, but is none the less a true, chivalrous Southern gentleman.

Both Will Build Roads.

Harold C. Beatty, Secretary of the Bluegrass Consolidated Traction Company, of which Senator George B. Davis, of Detroit, Mich., is President, stated Wednesday that the construction of the interurban roads proposed by his company would begin in the Spring and that everything pointing to the building of the roads was progressing rapidly. The franchises held by this company were revoked by the Fayette Fiscal Court last Saturday and turned over to the Fayette Interurban Company, recently formed, and it is the intention of the latter company to start work on the lines as soon as the weather opens up. With two companies in the field, one holding the franchises and the other claiming them, complications are expected to arise when the work of building the roads commences.

ALL FRESH STOCK.—You can at any times find fresh groceries at my stand fresh fruits, breakfast foods, fresh fish, mackerel, cod fish, oysters, celery, eggs, etc. 23-2t WM. SAUER.

A STRANGE FAD.—At her home in Madrid, Mme. Christine Nilsson had a bedroom papered with the leaves of music from the many operas in which she had sung, while the unusual decoration of her dining-room, being composed of hotel bills, was made to serve as a sort of diary of her travels.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The Executive Committee of the Biennial Association Tuesday decided to offer cash prizes of a total value of $10,000 for the competitive drills at the biennial encampment and sessions of the grand lodge will be held in Louisville beginning August 15.

COMING TO KENTUCKY.—Senator Blackburn will leave Washington for Frankfort to-day to spend four or five days. The Senator believes he will have no difficulty in disposing of the opposition to his reelection. Senator McCreary will also visit Frankfort next week to talk with the members of the Legislature.

DECLINES PRESIDENCY.—In a letter to Dr. J. M. Blainey, Chairman of the Committee of Notification, Dr. W. L. McEwan, of Pittsburg, declines to accept the Presidency of Central University. He says the responsibility of the work undertaken by him in Pittsburg cannot be shifted to other shoulders.

THE war is not yet three weeks old, but the correspondents have already succeeded in destroying the Russian fleet at Port Arthur twice over and in safely landed 872,500 Japanese troops in the disputed territory. The part played by the type-writer in modern warfare is not to be lightly reckoned.

"BEREA COLLEGE will still be open to both races, if it has to be moved to Ohio," declares its President. In that case, Kentucky will make a brave effort to survive the loss.

To Furnish Kentucky Building.

The Kentucky World's Fair Commission is anxious to furnish and decorate the interior of the Kentucky Building at the St. Louis World's Fair with furniture, etc., either made or owned in Kentucky.

There will be needed for the "New Kentucky Home," three bed-room suits, many chairs, tables, couches, bric-a-brac and ornaments of every description. Everything furnished will be returned to the exhibitors or owners at the close of the exposition.

It is the purpose of the commission to adorn the walls with paintings, pastels, water colors, crayons, etc., from Kentucky artists and of foreign artists owned in Kentucky. Many of both kinds have been promised, but orders are needed. Hand-painted china, pyrographic specimens, sculptural, fancy needle work of every description, carved wood, etc., etc., are wanted. Every exhibitor or contributor will be given full credit. Everything will be returned to the owners. A very handsome art design piano has been donated by D. H. Baldwin & Co., of Louisville. The instrument has been given outright.

All those wishing to add to the beauty of the interior of the Kentucky Building are asked to write to R. E. Hughes, Director of Exhibits Kentucky World's Fair Commission, Louisville.
